MEET BUSINESS MEN

Commissioner Macfarland Suggests Public Library as Proper Building to Be Shown by Model at St. Louis.

Albert M. Kelsey, architect and su perintendent of the department of mu-nicipal improvement of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition, will be in Washington next Friday morning and will consult with the District Commissioners relative to the proposed Washington exhibit. It is expected all details will quest an adequate appropriation from

Congress,
Accordingly, Commissioner Macfarland has invited informally the officers directors of the Board of Trade and the officers and directors of the these subjects.

Business Men's Association to meet him Dr. H. W. Wiley, of the Department at the District office next Friday morn subject, with the expectation that Mr. Kelsey will be present to furnish any information that may be desired.

Two Invitations Received.

Last summer the Commissioners re eived from the St. Louis World's Fair two invitations, the first to name a day for the celebration of the District of columbia by appropriate exercises, and the second to make an exhibit, on behalf of the city of Washington, of a typical building, municipal in character, in the Model City. The Commissioners accepted the first invitation, and designated October 29, 1994, as District of Columbia Day, and this was ac-cepted by the World's Fair management. The Commissioners deferred acso many representative citizens were away at the time.

Model City a Feature. According to the information already received from the World's Fair manage-ment, it will provide in the Model City, which is to be built of staff or brick, a city hall, a city hospital, and a day nursery. New York, Atlanta, Boston. San Francisco, Kansas City, Minneapolis, and St. Paul have agreed to erect buildings in the Model City, and have appropriated from $5,000 to $40,000 each for the purpose. Philadelphia, Pitts-burg, Buffalo, and Detroit contemplate imilar action. If it is decided to have Washington represented in the Model City, Commis sioner Macfarland thinks that the Washington Public Library Building, as our most beautiful municipal building, and especially representative of the National Capital, would be a good one to select, and upon being informed by the St. Louis management that a library building, a courthouse, and a postoffice were among the units which had not been taken by any of the cities, asked that the privilege of selecting the library building be reserved for Wash ington until a decision could be reached as to whether the city of Washington would be represented.

RECEIVING SHIPS UNFIT FOR HOUSING SAILORS

Navy"-Surgeon Curtis Says Desertion May Be Attributed to Them.

"These ancient hulks are, from a sani tary standpoint, the rookeries of the modern navy. They have declined to the status of prison houses, or perhaps more aptly termed, houses of detention, ships no longer.'

Such is the denunciation of receiving ships which Surgeon L. W. Curtis, of the Buffalo, offers in a report of the health statistics of that vessel which shows in the carriage that bore us to the that the life and occupation of enlisted men in the navy are far from healthful.

Description in the navy are far from healthful.

The statistics of the towns, on our campaign four, and in the carriage that bore us to the speaking place was Malcolm Gillis, one of the labor leaders of the town. Desertion in the navy is attributed by Surgeon Curtis to the unsanitary condition of ships which are lying in port for long periods. In co-rection of these evils he suggests that every effort be made to keep vessels in a wholesome condition when in port and urges the necessity of maintaining a system of forced ventilation.

President Gratefully Accepts the Gift From H. C. Frick.

In formal acceptance of the celebrated painting by the French artist, Chartran, representing the signing of the protocol of peace between the United States and Spain, tendered to this Government by H. C. Frick, of Pittsburg, the President has written a letter thanking Mr. Frick for the gift. The painting hangs in the White Fairbanks. House room now used by President Roosevelt as his study. It was in this room that Secretary Day and Asbassador Cambon appended their signatures, the protocol having been first signed by Preident McKinley. M. Jules Cam-bon, the French ambassador, represented Spain in the negotiations. The figures of all the prominent officials of state who were present when the treaty was signed are shown in most lifelike attitudes. President Roosevelt expresses warmest appreciation on behalf of the nation in his letter to Mr. Frick.
